Community Mutual Aid Program

Guardian Family

ガーディアン ファミリー

No One Left Behind.

Whatever your situation,
you and your family are important.
Let's build a connected future together.

Support for People with Disabilities,
Single-Parent Families, and Children
Facing School Refusal

Building a future together with care and respect.

What is Guardian Family?

Guardian Family is a member-based community mutual aid program for members of NGO Umbilical Cord.

Based on the global principle of "No One Left Behind," we partner with NGO Shake Hand to bring you a system rooted in the traditions of mutual aid and welfare found in Northern Europe and beyond.

It is Japan's first community mutual aid program for disability welfare, designed to help members prepare for life's uncertainties and support one another through challenges.

The Power of Supporting Each Other

We stand
by each other

We help those in need

Together, we build a stronger community

We are here for you when...

You are raising a child with a disability

When you worry about
their unique needs,
learning, or future.

You are a single parent

When you worry about
daily life or parenting
on your own.

You are caring for a child with complex
medical or care needs

When you face physical or emotional strain and worry about the future.

Life has changed
significantly

When you face job loss, illness, disaster, or other unexpected events.

You are looking for someone to talk to during difficult times

When you feel lonely, isolated, or anxious and want to be prepared.

As a member, you'll receive support that brings peace of mind.
